List of ZDHC Certified Products

As a contributor to ZDHC value chain, an active participant and practitioner of ZDHC project, Zhejiang Wanfeng has established ecological security control system to provide customers with safe and ecologically friendly dyes by means of incoming material control, process control, product residue control and other means from the aspects of R&D, procurement, production, storage, etc.

In order to promote the effective implementation of ZDHC project, Zhejiang Wanfeng took the initiative to comprehensively check the use and residue of hazardous chemicals in products, dynamically sorted out the positive list of ZDHC-MRSL products, and took effective measures to carry out the substitution and reduction of hazardous chemicals in nonconforming products in an organized and planned manner.

It is hoped that through unremitting efforts, Wanfeng can achieve the goal of zero emission of hazardous chemicals, realize the win-win development of upstream and downstream industrial chains, improve the environmental performance of enterprises and even the whole industry, and lead and promote the healthy development of disperse dye industry! Now Wanfeng Positive List (the latest version) is publicly released to all interested parties. None of the products in the list are intentionally added with the harmful substances mentioned in ZDHC MRSL.
